

April 24. 1869

Bro. A. D. Strickler,

In answer to yours, it is not necessary to come under the bond of the covenant in order to a resurrection; & all who have come to a knowledge of the truth, but have refused to obey it, are obnoxious, or liable, to the second death.

This is evident beyond dispute to all who are not whimsical from Luke 13. 28; John iii. 19; and 2 Thes. 1. 8.

Such disputes in an ecclesia are the paying tithes of mint & cumming, & neglecting the weightier matters of the law. The non-resurrection of all out of Christ, is a whimsical conceit of one of the "greatest liars" & "rascals" in Philadelphia, Pa.

In hope of times when all such will be put to silence I remain

Yours Faithfully
John Thomas

April 24, 1869

Bro. A. D. Strickler

In answer to yours, it is not necessary to come under the bond of the covenant in order to a resurrection & all who have come to a knowledge of the truth, but have refused to obey it are obnoxious, or liable, to the second death.

This is evident beyond dispute to all who are not whimsical from Luke 13.28; John iii.19; and 2 Thes.1.8.

Such disputes in an ecclesia are the paying tithes of mint & cumming & neglecting the weightier matters of the law. The non-resurrection of all out of Christ is a whimsical conceit of one of the "greatest liars" & "rascals" in Philadelphia, Pa.

In hope of times when all such will be put to silence I remain

Yours Faithfully
John Thomas