

The deliverance of Israel from Egypt is a parable of the call of God from the darkness of ignorance through the sacrifice of Christ to the hope of salvation
(1 Cor. 10:1-11; Acts 15:14)

